The story is about Marty and Sara along with soccer and other turbulences of life. It is hard to predict as to what kind of feelings that they both have with each other but still, bonding is quite close as we witness in movies. For him, soccer has always been a great source to excel at and dream about; for her, it surely is her sense of freedom yet responsibility and inclinations towards romance yet never ever compromising on her principled values. Life puts us in exams, only braves have the tendency to face everything gracefully and also excel. Fitness leads to motivation and that to success; after that, the demand is to keep us away from shortcuts and laziness, they say, is it hard to achieve success and even harder to maintain it! Let's see whether the guy finds himself in National team one day, but even then, his publicist shall be the same women as no one understands him better than her.
