Funeral Sermons and Outlines F. B., Charles H. Spurgeon, Albert Barnes, and More Meyer

The preparation of the funeral sermon or address is one of the most exacting duties of the minister. The envioning atmosphere of one death has certain elements in common with that of all other deaths. And these common characteristics are such as to call for the greatest care in preparing an appropriate message. The minister's task is made doubly difficult by the fact that every death is individual and is attended by its own peculiar circumstances and effects. These are the considerations which have guided the assembling of the material for this volume. This book is a handbook for use in preparing funeral sermons or addresses. It includes complete sermons, condensed sermons, outlines, quotable poetry, pertinent illustrations and quotations, select hymns, and suggested themes and texts. These selections are gleaned from the writings of the sermon masters of yesteryears.
