We had roast chicken for dinner. Liam had left work early so he could start it and have it ready before nine o'clock. He was a great cook, ten times better than I was. He did all the veg to go along with it too. Then we lay on the couch and watched some TV before he got up and told me he was going to bed. I knew what that meant. If you're one of those people I was talking about who doesn't like normality, you probably think that my fiancée was a little boring. He wasn't though, far from it. Maybe you could make that case about him in his working life, but sexually, he was an animal. A freak. That's what they say, isn't it? If not, I have to use it anyway because it's the only way to describe that man in the bedroom.
