Witzend, No. 4 Wallace (editor) Wood

Clean, fresh, vintage paperback, has creasing from reading, no marks, like new binding. Witzend was the pioneering avant garde zine that became a cultural phenomenon, this issue has a long editor's note from Wood in his unique style. The Zine allowed great comic artists and new ones to illustrate free-form, under his no policy rule. IN this issue Reed Crandall does Edgar Rice burroughs. Our Family carefully packs each book in high-quality bubble lined, envelopes, then send you an email when it ships. We appreciate your business and welcome any questions.
