Les Aventures de John Davys (Annoté) (French Edition) Alexandre Dumas

John Davys passe son enfance seul, entre son père, glorieux officier de marine à la retraite et sa tendre mère. Après quelques années au collège, il embarque lui aussi. Sa carrière lui fait découvrir tous les aspects de la vie à bord: beauté et intérêt de la navigation et des escales, rencontre avec des personnages marquants mais aussi rudesse des marins. En butte aux injustices de Burke, le second du bâtiment, il décide de se venger et le tue en duel. Sa carrière est brisée, il est exilé. Après avoir subi un naufrage et survécu miraculeusement à un abordage, il se lie avec un chef de pirates, Constantin. Admis à pénétrer dans son repaire, il tombe passionnément amoureux de sa fille Fatinitza. Avant de l'épouser, il décide de recevoir la bénédiction de ses parents, qui le rappellent à Londres pour que son procès soit révisé. De retour en Angleterre, il est jugé puis acquitté, et reçoit le consentement de ses parents. Malheureusement, son retour est beaucoup plus long que prévu...
