What's going on here! The people that the Lord rescued from slavery in Egypt are now worshiping fake gods and sacrificing their children to idols! But God doesn't give up on Israel and Judah right away. He sends strange men called prophets, who see visions and get swallowed by fish as they warn of God's growing anger. And every once in a while, you meet a good king like Josiah, who calls the people back to the right way. Find out if kings and prophets can keep Israel---and later, Judah---from getting clobbered.
