Roshaton may look like a safe, quiet town on the surface, but underneath lies a dark, sinister reality: humans are being transformed into demons through horrifying rituals. The world is quickly being taken over by rabid demons intent on destroying mankind.

Except for Naya, who's not your typical demon. Not only is she ancient in age, with the appearance of a 17-year-old, but she uses her powers to protect, not harm. She's also part human, and her father is one of the great archangels of Heaven. Torn between the demands of the spiritual realm and the laws of the physical world, she's been thrust into a deadly war, where saving mankind means she has to destroy her own family.

With a slew of unlikely allies - including Lucifer, the fallen archangel - Naya is on a journey to stop a tidal wave of darkness from covering humanity. Loyalties are challenged, morals are tested, and the supernatural realm is on a collision-course with our world. Defeat means more than the loss of humanity - it's an epic battle to see if the powers of darkness can truly be defeated by light.
