When she came to the world, everyone who saw her face said she was the shadow of Qiao Tianqing. She knew she wasn't, she was alive, and in her head there was a chip Qiao did not have. When she opened her eyes and saw him, the program of cognition memorized him. But the thing she did not know was whether he also considered her as the shadow of his ex-girlfriend. She fell in love with him unknowingly, and she couldn't help controlling her behaviors. She said she was never the princess, but for the sake of love and for the sake of the hug of the man with the warmth of human, she would rather lose her feet and lose everything, just in return of the smile of the prince. However, at last she found even a mermaid she could not be. And the entire fault was she was not human.
