Big Rick, a handsome ex-football player who stands 6'2" and weighs 250 pounds, jumps at the opportunity to take over a failing nightclub called the Champagne Lounge. He uses his connections and status to turn the club into a popular nighttime spot. Things were going good when the club opened, and life was great for Rick. He had the hottest club, a hot wife (Natasha), and an even hotter girlfriend (Nikki). But when his feelings for his girlfriend start to get out of hand, life as Rick knows it starts to unravel.

Finding himself in a position of having to finance two households, Rick begins to take on more risks to his livelihood in order to keep things balanced. Eventually, those risks catch up to him. In order to finance the club and the needs of the women in his life, Rick is forced to enter into business dealings with street thugs. Fabian and Josh are men with money; street hustlers whose only interest in the club is for the VIP treatment it provides. When the financial return on their investment in the club comes slower than expected, things go south as a violent plan of revenge by the city's top gang may cost Rick his club and his family.
