The 10 Most Important Things You Can Do For Your Children Roni Jay

When it comes to bringing up children, ‘getting it right’ is almost an obsession. This incredible new book takes parents through the ten things they must do to make sure their children grow into healthy, happy, responsible and independent adults.

- The book speaks very directly to the modern-day worries that time-starved parents have about ‘getting it right’.
- There’s plenty of books about the basics of baby care, but nothing to tell parents how to get parenting right – this book does exactly that.
- Parents will want to read this book either to reassure themselves that what they’re already doing is right, but also to find out what those things actually are
- The book is intelligent, practical and extremely thought provoking
- It’s high quality and substantive: there are loads of ideas, practical advice and skills to help parents help their kids to become well-balanced, happy and independent people.
