Betrayed and deceived...

Learning that her marriage was only to cover her husband's homosexuality. Carlene loses self-confidence and self-respect.

Going to extremes...

Feeling ugly and distinctly unfeminine, Carlene sets out to prove to herself and others that she is a sexy, sensuous, and feminine woman. Regardless of her straight laced upbringing, she finds herself seeking random sexual encounters just to see the lust for her body in the eyes of strange men. Even George, who she's known since her thirteenth summer, is no longer immune to her charms. His interest is different, he knows her and understands her pain and the fragile state of her emotions even while he can't resist her new look and attitude.

Redemption...

Can Carlene turn her life around and save the budding relationship between her and George? Does she want to? How much should she reveal to him about the past, and how will the revelation affect their future? Is confession good for both parties?

This work follows a woman struggling to find herself. Carlene is also struggling to find what we all want, love. Can she find what she seeks or has she ruined all of her chances by reckless behavior?

This book is intended for adult audiences.

Caution: This book contains scenes not suggested for those under 18.
