Life is Short, But It's Wide Ann Ipock

Ipock tells her audiences her book is not the only thing that s wide, then points to her hips. Self-deprecation is a running theme as she skips along from one embarrassment to the other, apparently living under a Ziggy cloud. The poor thing! Whether we are hearing about Ipock getting the mayor s mustache caught in her dental hygiene polisher, hosting supper club on a budget of $2,495, job descriptions for grandmothers, advice to the lovelorn or the definition of high-maintenance, we want to hear more!
