Jessica was always clumsy and it never led to anything good. That all changed during New York fleet week. Spilling a cup of coffee on a man in uniform was something that embarrassed her. When the gorgeous uniformed man named, Rick tells her that she has to buy him a coffee because of her mistake, she agrees. She's not expecting what happens next. The gorgeous stranger lures her to his hotel and shows her just how much pent up sexual tension a man on shore leave can have inside of him. But there's more to this sailor than she knows. He is a Navy Seal, and he's rich. He doesn't do his job for the money; he does it because it turns him on. The danger of covert missions has made him a man with an unusual.... interests. Jessica allows the strong brave man to be her only fleet week indulgence.
