"Her realistic writing of well-packaged vampires and werewolves leaves the reader thirsting for the forbidden and a driving need to be possessed within her erotically charged worlds." ~ 5 Blue Ribbons, Romance Junkies

To Super-cop Max Weir, the only good vampire is a dead one. Since his special police unit integrated with vampires, he's had to suppress his natural hatred to work side by side with the undead to hunt down and terminate the deadliest killers. Now the unit's hot on the trail of a new menace in town, a pack of werewolves prowling for vampires who don't care whether humans get in their way.

When a stakeout goes awry, Max enters a bar looking for a fight or woman to help him blow off a little steam. What he finds is a winsome siren whose sexual appetites match his own.

Vampire Pia D'Amato is on a secret mission to take out Max--either by seduction or turning him. He's become a liability to the Masters' Council setting up jurisdiction in southern Florida, and she's not leaving until she's done the job. But Max is more man than she bargained for with a deadly secret of his own.

Note: This book was previously published as Relentless, but has been revised and expanded.
