Phonics In Context Bev Heaton

Children develop phonic skills as they read original and often humorous passages and answer questions about the story. Each story focuses on a specific sound. Phonics in Context includes a carefully developed sequence of activities to teach and reinforce vowel blends and more complex vowel/consonant combinations. The sounds covered include aw', oi', ear' and tion'. An ideal classroom supplement or for use in special needs, remedial and tutorial settings. For more phonics activities, see the title Early Phonics in Context.
