Franklin D. Roosevelt changed America forever with his “New Deal,” which ushered in an age of entitlement. The mentality gained steam with Lyndon B. Johnson's “Great Society,” and took an even greater hold with the election of Barack Obama, whose Democratic Party rode his coattails to victory in the midst of an economic crisis. Under Obama's leadership, big government has flexed its muscle to take control of the health care delivery system, Wall Street, the auto industry, and investment banking-leading to more bureaucracy, more control, and more taxes. Even with all that's been accomplished, there's still a final step we must take to ensure that we achieve enlightenment: We must institute “Freefare,” which would eliminate hunger, suffering, and racial disparities. By examining the progressive reforms initiated by Fdr, Johnson, Obama and others who subdued the masses by developing meaningful wealth redistribution systems, we'll be able to embrace the next logical step toward a totally class neutral society; Freefare
