These memoirs are about a boy who was born on an Iowa farm in January 1934 and his travels through life until now. In his life Francis B. Francois has had the chance to travel in all 50 States of the United States of America and in over 30 other nations, and to meet and talk with many, many people. In his careers and on his travels he has often been asked, Where are you from? His common answer has been, Me? I'm from Iowa. To Frank, this answer sums up much of who he is and who he has become. These memoirs put on paper something about Frank and his family, to help answer some of the questions that his children, their children, and their children's children, may have. His many friends and associates will also enjoy reading this book. What he has written here will also be of interest to others, both to Iowans as well as to people who have never set foot in the Hawkeye State.
