Trill to Me Sweetly (A Paranormal's Love Book 1) Charlie Richards

Maelgwn, leader of a clutch of gargoyles in Durango, Colorado, only planned to be in Stone Ridge a few days to help a fellow gargoyle's mate through laying their first egg. His plan to leave changes when he scents his mate in the hospital. He discovers his mate is Bobby Truman, a human who has no idea the paranormal world exists, even though a number of his friends are shifters. Maelgwn begins the arduous process of watching and waiting, searching for that perfect opportunity to make contact with his mate.

Bobby Truman is tired of his boyfriend, Seth's, abusive friends, especially when Seth doesn't do anything about their antics. The broken nose, compliments of Seth's buddy Grant, is the final straw. When he's attacked by muggers and rescued by a mysterious stranger in the dark, Bobby hopes it's the opportunity he needs to make a clean break from Seth. Even if it doesn't work out with Maelgwn, maybe Bobby can keep his new love interest's attention long enough to prove to Seth they are really done.

Bobby thinks it's odd that Maelgwn won't come into the light, always meeting him after dark, but he's nowhere near prepared for the truth when it finally comes out.

Can Maelgwn convince Bobby that the things that go bump in the night aren't always bad and to take his place at Maelgwn's side in a paranormal world? Even when that means uprooting his life and moving?
