Roshani is a fashion model, but that's not all. Varun is mesmerized when he first encounters her, during a rescue. Is it her statuesque beauty? Or is it something much more? Where does she constantly disappear?

Just as Roshani lets her guard down, and welcomes Varun into her life, the unthinkable happens. Unable to bear her loss, she sinks deep into a bottomless sorrow. Until one name leads her back to her native India. As secrets tumble out, she is left feeling betrayed, and strangely, grateful. The surprises however, are just beginning.

Whether in the serene Himalayas and beautiful Belize, or vibrant New York City and Arizona, the characters find unexpected strength and twists of fate that define their tangled lives forever.

Jennifer Emard gave it 4/5 stars -

"I have to say, I did not see the ending coming. Once Varun's secret is revealed, the story starts taking unexpected turns. Frequently I found myself thinking, "She/he is NOT going to do that!"

You'll find yourself racing towards the ending wondering how it will ever work out. I'm not usually surprised by books; this was a welcome and entertaining change."
