Three island boys from the Isles of Scilly take on one of the last great challenges of the world - The Mongol Rally; a 10,000 mile journey from the UK to Mongolia without any support team or assistance - all for charity. Through 15 countries, Team Scilly Mission are faced with extraordinary challenges; corrupt police, chased by armed riders, impounded at a border for days, driving through a 46c heatwave, crossing through rivers and overcoming breakdowns hundreds of miles from civilization. This is the story, written on the road as it happened. This challenge was to raise money for the Cystic Fibrosis Trust, the boys' 8th consecutive year of fundraising.
