The Siren's Sea: Revenge: Book 1 Clare Angelica

A tale that far surpasses time is the story of Sirens...a tale of immortality, ethereal grace, and a desire for vengeance that will not subside. Sirens are rumored to be women of incomparable beauty, unprecedented strength, and undeniable cruelty that lurk in the veil of the ocean's wave. Drown in the water's of three intoxicating and mystical women as they battle upon the ever-changing sea.... Dorian Lily, captain of the pirate ship The Lady, has built a reputation of being devious, cruel, calculated, and unyielding upon her verdict while she relentlessly protects a world that far outreaches mortal sanity and boundaries. Rahn Masago wears her exotic beauty as a shield while wielding terror through her samurai sword. Rahn hides a deep secret of betrayal that threatens to find the light within the shadows as The Lady begins her next journey. Rowan Roberts, the wallflower of the three, hides behind her crimson locks, but a past injury ignites her hunger for revenge. The fever draws Rowan to the helm as she embarks The Lady upon a voyage of no return. The sea and wind beckon to the Siren's Call as the sail's of The Lady begin to fly. The crew aboard is filled with magic, for none among them a mortal be. Nevertheless, the lives entrusted to The Lady are unprepared for the intrigue of the high-seas as a vast lineage of beings of light and dark are revealed. Pity the three poor souls who have been taken captive beneath The Lady's colors. However, even in the midst of punishment, these three men cannot resist the temptation of their intricate and seductive captors. For truly, how can anyone resist the Siren's Song?
