This is not your typical book on how to write. No, this book is a collection of innovative weekly writing tips to suggest ways to improve your craft - whether it be creating the idea and story, working on the plot, developing your characters, editing, marketing or whatever. Where else will you find Zombies who are your friends? Who'd have thought these creatures of the night would come to help you discover the truth about active vs. passive voice? I guess zombies like living and active things. Or would you believe that cutting word count can improve your sales? With that said, those two words (that, said) can be eliminated to create better writing and increase your profitability. Plus other strange tips to help you become a better writer.
