The world tell us to “trust our heart,” but the bible advises against it. The bible tell us that the heart of mankind is deceitful and wicked. Without the guidance of the Holy Spirit, each one of us naturally wants to rebel against God. Our mind and emotions tells us it’s OK to do things that God has instructed us not to do. In the bible, when King Solomon refers to the heart, he is not talking about the organ in your chest that pumps blood. The biblical meaning of the heart is: the inner core of a person, the thoughts, feelings, desires, will, and choices that make that person who he or she really is.

You are in charge of your thoughts, and your actions. Despite what is going on around us, we each have the choice to choose to do right or wrong. We can allow past circumstances to determine the course of our lives, or we can decide to make a change, and make better decisions. With the power of God’s Word, and the help of the Holy Spirit, you can live a better life, starting today.

Filled with powerful encouragement and over 200 scriptures, I wrote this book to be used as a reference and study guide that you can use whenever you want to delve into the Word of God. Use this book when you need a scripture to start your day, or a word of encouragement during a tough time.

Enjoy the journey as God begins to shape and mold you into the beautiful woman He has created you to be.

Much Love,
Victoria
