This special edition includes the artists from the second set of six editions of The Art of Man, volumes seven through twelve. It does not however include the articles featured in each edition. We have included one sample gallery interview, and an article on Eugène Frederik Jansson found in our twelfth edition written by art historian, Grady Harp. Full editions can be found by visiting www.TheArtOfMan.net. The Art of Man quarterly seeks to bring balance to a genre of art that overwhelmingly favors the female figure. Distributed internationally, we feature artists that are courageous enough to focus on the male figure as a significant portion of their portfolio. We bring you in-depth interviews into their thought processes, choices, struggles, and creativity in a way no book on the subject can; a buffet for the connoisseur of figurative art.
