In the aftermath of a worldwide EMP event that set mankind back a long ways, John Walker and his extended family and friends have built a new way of life in the canyons of Lake Powell. Living in peace isn't always easy, but they are proving that meeting force with greater force makes everybody safer.

After creating the 'Wolf Pack', an all-woman and very well-trained force of dedicated fighters, John's ladies continue their development with the addition of even more of these special women who wanted to be involved in making the country safer and to help build a new way of life. Life in the Canyons has taken a new road- one that promises to be very exciting.

After an extended road trip to locate John's son Jack, word of problems in the Gulf threaten the supply of coffee and other goods that are being imported thru the efforts of John and his group. They soon find themselves heading into another dangerous situation.
