PANIC J.A. Carter

This place and everyone in it are swallowed up.

On a night in the future of a tired, abandoned, wild city, on the night before the old days holiday of Halloween, the kids are out causing trouble. All anyone who wants to see the morning can do is...

At the old thing at the edge of town, there's a monumental edifice that nobody talks about. It's just too big and full of secrets for a few curious kids to ignore. Inside they find...

Some things roam the earth without a shape until some strong, misunderstood emotion molds one for them. If you could see what a child's imagination could conjure up, you'd...

There are men who are only exceptional when it comes to lying. They spend their whole lives in flight, from consequences, from responsibility, from retribution. If you have what you might call a past, there might be cause to...

What if you learned your fate and it was imminent? What if you learned that fate was someone's idea of a joke. What would you do? Wouldn't you...

Look up to the sky and imagine something in your own image. Something unknowable and incalculable. It wants to rub you out. Try not to...
