Siblings Katherine L. Smyth

When tragedy strikes on an Australian coastal road, orphaned twins Jared and Asha are thrust into a new way of life in America with family they've never even met. Sometimes humorous, sometimes haunting, Siblings is a vignette journey through candid snapshots and remembered moments of Asha's life. Siblings is an engaging tale that touches on the loss of childhood innocence, of coping with grief and struggling through the adversities of being a teenager, and ultimately it is a reminder of the rewards that await perseverance, in life and in love.
