Joe's crazy mom was the main character in the humorous short story "Gun Under Her Pillow." This is another short story about her. Joe goes home a couple months later to find Carla, his sister, has moved out of his mother's house. Mildred, his mother, invites a widow friend to move in with her. This friend, Dee, wears two pistols on her hips and is rather unusual. At first Joe and Carla think that having another woman living with their mom is great, but it doesn't take long before they get uneasy when the ranch woman gives their mom a shotgun. This humorous short story is suitable for all age groups.
