Orphaned, unloved, and forced to remain a servant in her own home. True happiness is only a dream for Amelia. A dream that will never come true...

Amelia was left at a young age to fend for herself in her aunt's home. With her parents gone, her aunt has squandered her inheritance and has forced Amelia to live as a servant in her own home. Marie, the housekeeper, is Amelia's only lifeline and has been the only source of love in her life...until now. Taking matters into her own hands Amelia decides to try and escape once again and answer a mail order bride ad.

Gabriel, a ranch owner, is elated that she is finally going to be his. But will he be able to accept her past and the baggage that comes with? Will he finally be the one to give Amelia the unconditional love she has dreamed of? Or will her past once again entangle itself in her dreams...making her one chance for happiness impossible yet again...
