The Duke's Guide to Catch a Lady is a historical romance which portrays the period of Regency Era on the soil of Great Britain. It is a story which takes several twists and turns, whose culmination presents a love triangle that is more complex than it might appear at the first glance. The language and scenery depict the spirit of age, thus creating an atmosphere that can be felt through the senses. None of the characters which appear are flat, yet every figure appearing, apart from being three-dimensionally drawn, seems to have a particular role in the greater plan. The story starts in-medias-res, hence empowering the feeling these events mean to convey. Thrilling is a tamed description of the occurrences which take part in this surreal world, and the magic it carries within itself will surely consume the reader, embracing them within their own imagination. At the end, the lady will finally get into the hands of the man who truly deserves her, but whether that is going to be the Duke or the Earl, it is up to you to find out!
