Gracie Hayes was always getting Jacob Morales into trouble.

They spent their days as children going from one crazy adventure to another, with Jacob always following Gracie into trouble. After years of fun and so many memories made together, they said goodbye when the Hayes family moved across the country, very nearly forgetting all about one another.

When they're reunited as adults, they find themselves becoming even closer than they were as children. But life has changed them both, and adventures aren't as exciting as they once were. As they face an uncertain future, they're challenged to learn what it means to be friends, to become family, and to have faith, trusting Christ for the future ...
