Jinglebob: A true story of a real cowboy Philip Ashton Rollins

Fictional, but historically accurate, depiction of actual conditions faced by the old-time cowboy, or cow-puncher, i.e., the life of the "real" cowboy versus that of the more familiar "synthetic" cowboy. Philip Rollins, author of the classic "The Cowboy", here in "Jinglebob" writes "a story of the West of the eighties [1880's], whose hero is a top rider in a band that has gone South to drive a great herd of cattle to the home ranch."
