Saving Michael (Surf Bay Book 3) Ashley John

The Deputy Sheriff of Surf Bay has hit rock bottom. After pushing his boyfriend away with his drunken, violent behavior, Michael doesn't have any reason to live anymore. Sleeping in his car and on his father's couch, Michael is spiraling further and further into a dark pit as he drinks himself to death.

The local vet, Caleb, is young, attractive and full of life. His passion is saving the animals that pass through his surgery, but when the very place he loves is engulfed in flames, it's up to the local, drunk police officer to save him from the fire. After being saved, Caleb invites Michael to his mother's annual Christmas party to make his ex, Ace, jealous, but as Michael and Caleb get closer, Caleb knows there's more to the dark void of sadness that fills Michael, than first meets the eye.

He makes it his mission to save Michael, but is Michael beyond saving? Michael witnessed something horrific as a child that changed the course of his life forever, but will he be able to bring justice to the memories of his past so he can have a future?

Word count: 90,000
