The Scourge: Emaculum (Volume 3) Roberto Calas

The last mile is always the longest.

The Scourge: Emaculum is the haunting conclusion to the Scourge trilogy. Sir Edward Dallingridge's wife, the Lady Elizabeth, waits, once more, in St. Edmund's Abbey. To reach her, Edward must battle a king and save a queen, break an oath and swear another. He must destroy a legion of demons and take up God's banner as rival armies threaten to tear England apart.

The Red Plague that has swept England continues to burn through the populace and ravage the countryside. Edward fights his way through this landscape, his soul blackening a shade with every life he takes. Only his lost love can save him from his sins. But he must reach her first. And his greatest enemies are not the savage plagues wandering the villages of his kingdom, but the men and women who have avoided the affliction.

Where is King Richard? Where are England's armies? Can the Red Plague be cured?

Edward will unravel each of these mysteries . . . but the answers may not please him.
