A murder mystery set in present-day Montana, The Ties That Bind will take you on a roller coaster ride of hidden identities, family secrets, kidnapping, and murder.

The main character, Hud Tanner, is the sheriff of Potter County, the largest county in the state, as well as the least populated. The county seat is Bailey, where Hud was born and raised. It's a small town---population a touch over 600---and typically free of excitement other than the occasional bar fight. Bailey is one of those towns where everyone knows everyone, which means secrets are hard to keep.

All of that changes, though, when a shooting takes place out at the Coburn Ranch; the home of Hud's high school sweetheart and wife of the wealthiest man in the county...Hud Tanner's former best friend. As Hud begins to piece the case together he soon realizes he's stumbled upon one of the biggest secrets the county has ever had, and that this is far more than just a run-of-the-mill break-in gone awry. The layers are many and no one is exempt, Hud included.

This story has it all: suspense, jealousy, love, hate, deceit, betrayal, sadness, and most of all, revenge...
